

The diagram illustrates the decomposition of a large rectangle with dimensions 5 (width) and 15 (height) into six smaller rectangles, each with dimensions 1.5 (width) and 13.5 (height). The large rectangle is on the left, and the six smaller rectangles are arranged in a single row to its right. Dimension lines with numerical labels indicate the size of each rectangle.